InterContinental Thalasso Bora Bora & Thalasso Spa Voted World's Best Bedside View

Feb 23, 11 | 12:03 am

There's a lot to be said for having a stunning view from your bed. The members of TripAdvisor certainly think so - and they've voted the view from the bed of InterContinental Bora Bora Resort & Thalasso Spa overwater bure as the best in the world.

It certainly helps that the glass-walled bedrooms are on one of the most stunning lagoons on the face of the planet. If you're so inclined, you can take a few steps onto the deck and dive right in; but the best part is - according to TripAdvisor - that you don't have to.

InterContinental Bora Bora Resort & Thalasso Spa is on the Tahitian island of Bora Bora, one of the world's most aspirational destinations. The all-overwater bure resort is also home to the balneotherapy and thalassotherapy Deep Ocean Spa.

InterContinental Hotels & Resorts has presence in more than 60 countries, with local knowledge that comes from over 60 years of experience. The first hotel brand to offer global destination specific concierge websites and videos, guests get to enjoy a richer travel experience by tapping into the collective local knowledge of our InterContinental Concierge Teams in more than 120 destinations. An InterContinental experience is one that will enrich their lives and broaden their outlook, with stories they can share when they go home.

There are 171 InterContinental Hotels & Resorts in major global cities such as London, Paris, New York, and Tokyo, including 51 in Asia Pacific. The IHG portfolio of resorts in the region includes properties in Fiji, Bali and the Maldives. Visit www.intercontinental.com for more.
